Please join us for a spectacular evening at The View at Battery Park, finely positioned along New York Harbor in lower Manhattan. To maximize networking and enjoyment, there will be a new format for this annual awards celebration in essence a three-hour cocktail and dinner reception hybrid with multiple cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and entrée stations, and the freedom for guests to sit and circulate as they please. Moreover, we have a great lineup of award recipients, and many distinguished jurists are expected. Weather permitting, the venue's elegant indoor and outdoor spaces, including its broad patio facing the harbor, will be available. And a one hour NY ethics CLE course will precede the festivities, titled "The Disciplinary Process and the Escrow Account" by Mark A. Longo, Esq.

Note: DANY has been granted CLE accreditation by the NY Office of Court Administration. One ethics CLE credit will be granted to New York attorneys who attend the entire presentation. This course is appropriate for new and experienced attorneys.
